

Dear Matthews Elementary Family:

Families and communities play an essential role in the school's success of our children. There are several ways that you can get involved and support meaningful learning. Some examples are attending school events, participating in PTA, volunteering in your child's school, or contributing your time by helping with homework and reading each night. In as much, you are contributing to the academic well-being of our children.

Family and community engagement is strongly encouraged at Matthews Elementary School! However, we would like to improve and help continue meeting the needs of our students and their families. You can help us form a better partnership between school and home by answering the questions on the survey link below. The survey is short and should take less than two minutes to complete.
