Being proactive at work involves a commitment to identifying issues and taking steps to resolve them. Taking initiative can help you improve your chances of getting a promotion, and it can inspire your coworkers to raise their performance. Here are some tips to show the initiative that will help you thrive in the workplace and improve your career prospects:

1. Do more than what is expected of you.
2. Make your career plan.
3. Work on your confidence.
4. Develop a team mentality.
5. Actively request feedback and follow it.
6. Always keep a positive attitude.
7. Be prepared for any opportunity.
8. Try to anticipate any upcoming issues and discuss them with your coworkers.
9. Share your ideas for workplace improvements.

At Brookwood Middle School, we focus on Building and Modeling Success and have a creed we live by: Participation, Responsibility, Integrity, Dedication, and Effort are five key elements that help me be successful. It is up to me to participate appropriately, to be responsible for my words and actions, to do the right thing, to be dedicated to my opportunities, and to put forth the effort needed to be successful.
